

DePelchin's PREVENTION AND EARLY INTERVENTION:

Fatherhood provides support and classes to fathers.

COVID-19 Virtual Response: Fatherhood continues to provide classes and support to fathers. Classes are being held via Zoom. Click here for more information and to register. A flyer is also attached to this email. For questions, please contact Joshua Williams, Project Supervisor, at JWilliams@DePelchin.org.

FAYS- Family and Youth Success Program (Previously known as STAR) provides free counseling services to children and families.

COVID-19 Virtual Response: STAR is using Zoom and telephone calls to connect with families for ongoing counseling, crisis support, and resource/referral needs. For questions, please contact Jody Chandler, Program Coordinator, at JChandler@DePelchin.org.

ParentingHelp provides one-on-one in-home parenting support and community group classes using the Nurturing Parenting model.

COVID-19 Virtual Response: ParentingHelp continues to provide services to existing clients in a virtual capacity via Zoom or phone. The program continues to receive new referrals and is in the process of setting up services for new families. Parenting Help has pledged to provide daily parenting tips and activities to support the public during this time. We are also excited to announce that we will be launching "Virtual Parent Cafés" next week.

Parent Café: Interested in meeting with other parents just like you? Join us for a Parent Café in your own living room. Parent Cafés create a safe place for parents to come together, provide mutual support, and gain parenting protective factors.

Virtual Parent Café: Monday, April 20 | 3PM to 5PM (weekly)

<https://www.depelchin.org/events/4531/>

Foster Care Parent Café: Wednesday, April 22 | 10AM to Noon (weekly)

<https://www.depelchin.org/events/4533/>

Café para Padres: Thursday, April 23 | 6PM to 8PM (weekly)

<https://www.depelchin.org/events/4534/>

To learn more and register for the Parent Cafés, click here.

For questions, please contact Megan Green, Program Coordinator, at MGreen@DePelchin.org.

Parenting 101 provides free parenting education classes.

COVID-19 Virtual Response: Parenting 101 has resumed classes via Zoom. Click here for more information and to register. For questions, please contact Lesly Coleman, Program Coordinator, at LColeman@DePelchin.org

Mental Health Awareness provides training in Youth and Adult Mental Health First Aid as well as QPR Suicide Prevention.

COVID-19 Virtual Response: MHAT is now offering QPR Suicide Prevention training virtually to educators, parents and community members.

QPR Suicide Prevention Training Webinar: Monday, April 27 | 1PM to 2PM

QPR Suicide Prevention Training Webinar: Monday, May 11 | 11:30AM to 12:30PM

To learn more and register for the webinar, click here.

For questions, please contact Lisa Whitehead, Clinical Supervisor, at LWhitehead@DePelchin.org.

Coming Soon!

Mental Health Support Line: DePelchin will have a new resource available to support families in the Greater Houston and Baytown Communities. Beginning April 20th, DePelchin Children's Center will be launching a Mental Health Support Line designed to support families who may be experiencing mental health stress related to the COVID-19 Pandemic. The Mental Health Support Line will provide callers with access to mental health support, guidance, and a direct connection to agency and community resources. Families can access a Mental Health Professional Monday through Friday, 9:00 am-5:00 pm, by calling 713-558-3777. The Mental Health Support Line is offered at no cost in English and Spanish.